

ONE ROTATION

Dawn

It dances across the sky
Illuminating the landscape with light, like a warming camp fire
A beacon of hope, filled with fresh possibilities
Welcoming the day.

Day

It stretches across the sky
Filling the landscape with life, like a blossoming flower
A jigsaw puzzle of nature, perfect in every way
Preceding the dusk.

Dusk

It creeps across the sky
Decorating the landscape with colour, like paint on a canvas
A brilliant kaleidoscope of purples, pinks and reds
Welcoming the night.

Night

It falls across the sky
Encasing the landscape in darkness, like a winter blanket
A blackened curtain, speckled with tiny jewels
Preceding the dawn.
